World War II: 1942–1943
HYBRID: November 2, 16 and 30 at 10 a.m.
Instructor: Neal Ferguson, Ph.D., professor emeritus of history and dean emeritus of Extended Studies, University of Nevada, Reno, OLLI member
A continuation of Professor Ferguson's series on World War II, this three-part series will explore themes and campaigns associated with late 1942 and early 1943. Topics include the European Eastern Front including Stalingrad, Stalin's call for a second front in Western Europe, and the development of Lend-Lease. The series will also cover geographical areas of conflict (for example, the Balkans, Greece, North Africa, Sicily and Italy), suggesting how they complicated the German and Allied strategies and deployments.

OUR Place: Unlocking a Better Tomorrow
HYBRID: at 12 p.m.
Instructor: Kim Schweickert, M.S., coordinator, Washoe County Human Services Agency
OUR Place is Reno's person-first model for how an emergency shelter can better serve women and families experiencing homelessness. It is the largest emergency housing provider for women and families in our community. Learn how it is specifically designed to provide a warm, safe, and home-like environment where guests feel welcomed and wanted. This “Person First” approach is meant to remove the stigma of poverty and provide a conducive space for healing and growth.

More Forgotten Films
HYBRID: at 2 p.m.
Instructor: Larry Coffman, M.A., OLLI member
Forgotten films are those that are well-deserving of a second — or even a third — viewing but seem to have been overlooked. Such films are often "indies" (from independent film studios) or were produced outside this country. Films for this series are chosen for their cultural, social or historical perspectives and will be presented with informative introductions, follow-up analyses and lively discussions.

Thursday, November 3

Comedy in The Canterbury Tales
HYBRID: November 3 and 10 at 10 a.m.
Instructor: Philip Boardman, Ph.D., professor emeritus of English, University of Nevada, Reno, OLLI member
In spite of the serious themes that Chaucer explores in his masterpiece The Canterbury Tales, modern readers probably respond most readily to his brilliant comedy, biting satire and clever irony. From the very start, when he invites us to join him on a pilgrimage and introduces his cast of characters, we are taken into a community fashioned of words in which all must be discovered and interpreted and, perhaps, seen through. In these two sessions, we will look closely at Chaucer's well-known Prologue and identify some of the ways he presses his Middle English into service of the variety of forms of medieval comedy and satire.
Gender Bending Movies: To Wong Foo, Thanks for Everything! Julie Newmar (1995)

MOANA: November 3 and 10 from 1 p.m. to 4 p.m.

Instructor: Howard Rosenberg, M.Ed., professor emeritus of art, University of Nevada, Reno

Social mores change as we grow older. How do we view these movies from the past? Would what seemed over the top a few decades ago now be accepted as normal? Our final movie on November 10 will be Ladies or Gentlemen (2008) with RuPaul.

MOANA: November 3 and 17 at 2 p.m.

(Mini-series: 8 sessions on 1st and 3rd Thursdays, September 1 to December 15)

Discover the Joys of Opera: Verdi's masterpiece, La Traviata

HYBRID: at 10 a.m.

Instructor: Lynne E. Gray, Ph.D., member-at-large OLLI Advisory Council

Why do so many people love opera? Partly it's the music, partly it's the stories, partly it's the incredible spectacle of the costumes and sets, but mostly it's the thrilling emotional power of the human voice. In this class, you will get an in-depth introduction to each opera that the New York Met broadcasts live in HD to our local movie theaters this season. You will hear many of today's most amazing opera stars and learn about the stories, the music, the history and the voices that enthrall audiences all around the world.

Coming up:
Dec 8: Kevin Put's world premiere of The Hours, as well as Giordano's classic, Fedora.

Celebrity Gravesites

HYBRID: at 12 p.m.

Instructor: Jim Bernardi, professor emeritus of theater, University of Nevada, Reno, OLLI member

Let's visit the final resting places of Hollywood legends, stage stars, playwrights, film directors, politicians and other notable personalities. Learn how, where and even why they are buried there, along with gossip and anecdotes about the graves and their occupants. We will revisit many of our old favorites, but there will be some new ones as well. Although our tour is timed to coordinate with Halloween, our visits will be more fun than ghoulish.

Literature’s Great Villains: “Nurse Mildred Ratched” from Ken Kesey’s One Flew Over the Cuckoo’s Nest

HYBRID: at 2 p.m. (This series is NOT recorded.)

Instructor: Joe Sanpietro, M.A., instructor of English, TMCC

Ken Kesey created a character who was based on a real person he met working the night shift in a psychiatric facility in Oregon. While Kesey later admitted her cruelty was embellished to make the character more compelling, this tyrant tops our list for this month's discussion. In this 4-part series of stand-alone lectures, Joe looks at heroism through the lens of villainy. He will discuss the archetype of villainy from the Greeks to the Marvel Cinematic Universe and answer the question, “What makes a truly great villain?”

Coming up:
December 2: "Tom Ripley" from Patricia Highsmith’s The Talented Mr. Ripley

Monday, November 7
