INTRODUCTION:
Welcome to the Osher Lifelong Learning Institute at the University of Nevada, Reno!
Nestled in the foothills of the Sierra Nevada mountains, OLLI at the University of Nevada, Reno is a spirited community of seasoned adults who gather to explore new interests, share ideas and make friends. Distinguished professors and knowledgeable instructors volunteer their expertise in programs and activities spanning such diverse topics as art, current events, economics, health, history, literature, music, science, travel, theatre and writing.

There are no grades, no tests and no pressure at OLLI. We welcome every adult learner regardless of previous educational experience.
An annual membership fee of $85 covers attendance at as many programs and activities you choose to attend, including:
- 150+ learning experiences every semester
  - in person at our Moana Campus
  - online via Zoom
  - outdoors throughout the Reno-Tahoe area
- social gatherings and cultural programs
- special events, field trips and a host of other enriching activities.

JOIN OLLI
You must be a paid-up member to attend any in-person or online programs and to receive the OLLI Weekly with links to Zoom programs. Please visit us at med.unr.edu/olli, where you will be able to create your user account, purchase membership, and browse upcoming programs. If you need help enrolling online, individual assistance is available at any of the Tech Help sessions on Tuesdays or Wednesdays.

CONNECT WITH OLLI
OLLI Weekly eblasts provide the most current program information. Only OLLI members who have paid their 2022-2023 membership will receive the OLLI Weekly. If you renewed your membership and are not receiving the OLLI Weekly emails, please notify the office at olli@unr.edu.

Many programs are presented as Hybrid, with a live audience on Campus simultaneously with an online audience on Zoom. Zoom classes are hosted on OLLI’s Zoom account: a free, web-based software that you can download, without needing to create an account, onto your computer, phone or tablet. Go to https://zoom.us/download to get it for your device.
Links for Zoom only and Hybrid programs will be in the OLLI Weekly’s program listings.
To add program sessions to your personal online calendar, go to our new website at med.unr.edu/olli. Choose and click on the blue CALENDAR box. Click on the specific program title, then click on “copy to my calendar.” Note: This does NOT register you for any programs; it’s just a calendar function.
This month’s programs are listed in four sections.
- Lectures and Mini-series are listed in chronological order, by date and then by time. Some programs may consist of a short series of sessions, and participants are encouraged to attend all sessions in the listing.
- Tours and Special Events are listed by date. Some of these programs may require pre-registration. Fees may apply. Please check the program descriptions for complete information.
- Outdoor Activities are listed by activity and day. See ollireno.com/outdoor/ for specific locations and times to meet.
- Interest Groups are ongoing classes that meet regularly throughout the year. New participants are welcome to join at any time unless the class is shown as full.
ALL programs start promptly at the time specified.
LECTURES AND MINI-SERIES

Monday, October 3
Nevada Ballot Questions for 11/8 Election
HYBRID: at 10 a.m.
Instructor: Sandra Cosgrove, executive director, Vote Nevada, history professor, College of Southern Nevada
Learn more about three ballot questions that amend our state constitution and address fundamental rights. Ballot Question One adds an equal rights amendment, while Ballot Question Two establishes that by 2024 the minimum wage cannot be lower than $12, but can be adjusted higher by the federal or state government. These two ballot questions originated from legislators. Ballot Question Three came from Nevadans and proposes to create open primaries with ranked choice voting in the general election, similar to Alaska. (Presenter will be on Zoom. Discussion will be facilitated live at OLLI.)

Tuesday, October 4
Enchanting Islands and Other Pockets of Magic
HYBRID: at 10 a.m. (second session on October 6)
Instructor: Karin McCollum, M. Ed., OLLI member
On Oct. 4, we visit isolated island destinations that beckon the traveler. Anecdotes in locales such as Komodo Island, Papua New Guinea, Borneo, Taiwan, Iceland, Greenland, Easter Island, the Galapagos and underwater are shared.
On Oct. 6, we visit South Korea, Venezuelan Islands, Trinidad, the Azores and Cuba. Grab your boarding pass to learn about these mysterious, less visited destinations!

Wednesday, October 5
What Makes a Bird a Bird, Part 1
HYBRID: at 10 a.m.
Instructor: Alan Gubanich, Ph.D., associate professor emeritus, department of Biology, University of Nevada, Reno, OLLI member
Well, it's obvious — they have wings and they fly! Join Alan Gubanich, longtime member of the Lahontan Audubon Society, to learn how birds do it (it's not just by flapping their wings) and how feathers not only contribute to flight, but serve other functions as well.

Kind Reporting in a Time of Outrage
HYBRID: at 12 p.m.
Instructor: Mark Robison, local government reporter, community engagement director, Reno Gazette Journal
RGJ local reporter Mark Robison looks at how journalism has changed in recent years and how he's trying to turn down the heat in local politics to focus on issues.

Thursday, October 6
Enchanting Islands and Other Pockets of Magic
HYBRID: at 10 a.m.
See description on Tuesday, October 4

Movies with Robin Holabird: Misery, 1990
MOANA: at 12 p.m. to 3:30 p.m.
Instructor: Robin Holabird, film commentator, author and world traveler
Robin will again introduce movies related to her work as Nevada’s film commissioner and others that showcase locations she has visited. In today’s movie, Misery, Stephen King shows terror often comes without the supernatural. Directed by Rob Reiner with a Best Actress Oscar-winning performance by Kathy Bates, the movie was filmed in Carson City and gets its own chapter in Robin’s book Elvis, Marilyn, and the Space Aliens: Icons on Screen in Nevada.

Writing Poetry
MOANA: October 6 and 20 at 2 p.m.
(Mini-series: 8 sessions on 1st and 3rd Thursdays, September 1 to December 15)
Instructor: Joan Brick, OLLI member
Examine different types of poetry, then write poems based on style and subject. The class will work in small groups to share ideas and evaluate individual writing. This will be a hands-on interactive workshop.

Friday, October 7
Preview of 2022-23 University of Nevada, Reno Performing Arts Series
HYBRID: at 10 a.m.
Instructor: Shoshana Zeldner, M.A., special events program manager, University of Nevada, Reno School of the Arts
The 62nd season of the University of Nevada, Reno Performing Arts Series is “Magnificently Diverse, Guided by Tradition.” Learn how this season was programmed to potentially transform hearts and minds, initiate dialogue and positively transform our community.
Sustaining Wild and Free Roaming Horses and Burros

HYBRID: at 12 p.m.

Instructor: Sherman Swanson, Ph.D., professor emeritus, Nevada Resources and Environmental Sciences-NV Cooperative Extension, University of Nevada, Reno

History, vision, reality, nightmares, paths and needed action. Fifty years after the Wild and Free Roaming Horses and Burros Act, we are learning what happens when we manage free-roaming horses using various strategies. With this knowledge we can choose to make the program sustainable, or ever more costly and ecologically unsustainable.

Literature's Great Villains: "Iago" from William Shakespeare's Othello

HYBRID: at 2 p.m.

Instructor: Joe Sanpietro, M.A., instructor of English, TMCC

Few villains are as despised as "Honest" Iago. Join us for a journey into the twisted tales and half-truths of this manipulative villain who makes us question the idea of a reputation as a precursor to trust. In this 4-part series of stand-alone lectures, Joe looks at heroism through the lens of villainy. He will discuss the archetype of villainy from the Greeks to the Marvel Cinematic Universe and answer the question, "What makes a truly great villain?"

Wednesday, October 12

Understanding SARS/COVID

HYBRID: at 10 a.m.

Instructor: Mark Pandori, Ph.D., director, Nevada State Public Health Laboratory, University of Nevada, Reno

Dr. Pandori will discuss his work throughout the pandemic at the Nevada State Public Health Laboratory, where he leads Nevada's centralized lab that protects, maintains and improves the health of Nevada citizens through the rapid detection of public health threats.

Neal Cobb's Reno: 1950s and '60s

HYBRID: at 12 p.m.

Instructor: Neal Cobb, local historian, OLLI member

Join Reno historian Neal Cobb for a nostalgic, narrated photographic journey through this fascinating era in Reno's history. From presidents, celebrities and the Ponderosa Ranch to ski jumping, vintage theaters and the Pyramid Lake hydroplane races, this program has it all!

Nature's Rock Garden

HYBRID: at 2 p.m.

Instructor: Bob Goodman, photographer and naturalist

Photographer and naturalist Bob Goodman presents a light-hearted photographic trip around the Eastern Sierra Nevada mountains and Nevada deserts to show features we try to emulate in our gardens.

Meditation One-Om-One ©

MOANA: at 2 p.m.

(Mini-series: Wednesdays at 2 p.m. for 4 sessions on Oct. 12, 19, 26 and Nov. 2)

Instructor: Debbie Bartley, OLLI member

Come join us and learn the ancient art of meditation. This is a unique meditation class. You will learn how to design your own meditation practice and how to adapt it for the changing needs in your life. We will explore the worlds of mindfulness, breathing, and mind/body connections. Learn how to use meditation for stress management, spirituality, health maintenance and fun. Most of all it will be an exploration of self. Plan to attend all four classes as you will be building upon the skills you learn in each session. The first class is mandatory to continue the series.

PRE-REGISTRATION REQUIRED: To pre-register, please send an email to ollirenosignup@gmail.com between September 19 and 30. Seating is limited to 20 students. Preference will be given to new students. If space allows, you may repeat this course. Please indicate when registering if you have attended this course before.

Friday, October 14

Reno's Cultural Crossroads: Discovering the History of our Diverse Community

HYBRID: at 10 a.m.

Instructor: Sharon Honig-Bear, writer, photographer, OLLI member

Take a virtual walking tour into Reno's diverse past, focusing on the area west of Virginia Street. We'll visit Chinese herbal shops, the Greek and Italian presence, Judaism's early days and examples of African-American heritage. Peek inside the closed-to-the-public Lear Theater (First Church of Christ, Scientist) and the Bethel AME Church and gain an appreciation of how cultural diversity has enriched the community.

Discover the Joys of Opera: Cherubini's tragedy, Medea

HYBRID: at 2 p.m. to 4 p.m.

Instructor: Lynne E. Gray, Ph.D., past chair, OLLI Advisory Council

(Mini-series: 3 stand-alone sessions on October 14, November 4 and December 8)

Why do so many people love opera? Partly it's the music, partly it's the stories, partly it's the incredible spectacle of the costumes and sets, but mostly it's the thrilling emotional power of the human voice. In this class you will get an in-depth introduction to each opera that the New York Met broadcasts live in HD to our local movie theaters this season. You will hear many of today's most amazing opera stars and learn about the stories, the music, the history and the voices that enthrall audiences all around the world. Coming up:

Nov 4: Verdi’s masterpiece, La Traviata

Dec 8: Kevin Put’s world premiere of The Hours, as well as Giordano’s classic, Fedora.
Monday, October 17

Day of the Dead in Mexico

HYBRID: at 10 a.m.
Instructors: Carol Grenier and Patrick Pevey, nature photographers
Join Carol and Patrick as they take us for a week-long trip for the annual "Day of the Dead" celebration and observances in central Mexico. We’ll visit the colorful cities of Guanajuato and San Miguel de Allende, wander the picturesque streets and join the festivities. The photography will be outstanding!

Local Theatre — Reno Little Theater (RLT)

HYBRID: at 12 p.m.
Instructors: Melissa Taylor, executive director, and Eric Boudreau, community engagement manager, Reno Little Theater
Reno has excellent live, local theatre! Come and learn about the Reno Little Theater (RLT). Find out where it is located, its history and philosophy, how to purchase tickets, its website and upcoming plays. Other possible topics include organizational structure, staffing, volunteer opportunities/duties, parking availability, handicap accessibility, cleaning protocols for Covid, etc.

Wednesday, October 19

Preserving History and Sense of Place in Reno

HYBRID: at 10 a.m.
Instructor: Alicia Barber, Ph.D., historian, author and preservation advocate
What role does history play in a growing 21st century city? Is historic preservation compatible with new development? As Reno continues to undergo rapid transformation, the fate of its historic landscape can appear more precarious than ever. In a highly visual presentation, historian and author Dr. Alicia Barber will discuss the current status of historic preservation in Reno, describe multiple ongoing projects that document and promote its history, and explain why the past is the key to ensuring Reno’s future success.

Film: The Motorcycle Diaries

MOANA: at 12 p.m. to 2:30 p.m.
Instructor: Karin McCollum, M. Ed., OLLI member
This 2-hour film is based on the true story of the youthful origins of a revolutionary spirit. The film follows Ernesto Che Guevara as he emerges a different person after his life changing motorcycle journey around Latin America.

Thursday, October 20

Reno’s Recreation Options

HYBRID: at 2 p.m.
Instructor: Jaime Schroeder, recreation director, City of Reno
Learn about the adaptive, aquatic, senior, and health and wellness programs offered by the city of Reno, including city recreation facilities, arts, sports leagues, and city trails and parks. Find out about the plans for the new 52,000-square-foot Moana Springs Aquatic and Fitness Center which will include 3 pools fed by natural hot springs (outdoor soaking, 50-meter competitive and multi-use pools). The center will also be a community center with multi-use rooms and locker facilities for fitness activities.

Friday, October 21

Health and Health Care: Why Is the United States So Different?

HYBRID: at 10 a.m.
Instructor: Michael Lollich, M.S., former CEO of Carson Medical Group, OLLI member
Except for the United States, nearly every developed nation has created an organized system of health care for all its citizens. This American exception profoundly affects its comparable cost and quality. This presentation will explore the evolution of societal health from the earliest ages through the Twentieth Century to examine how the United States came to take such a different approach to health and health care and what it has meant for the health of the population.

Monthly Member Meetup

HYBRID: at 12 p.m.
Instructor: Phyllis Clark, chair, OLLI Advisory Council
Come together to share your ideas: what you like, what you think could be improved to enhance your overall OLLI experience, what types of programs you’d like to see offered and social activities you’d most likely attend. Come to learn, share and meet new members. As a member-powered organization it’s important that all members — new and continuing — learn and work together to help us thrive.

James Webb Space Telescope: Design to Data

HYBRID: at 2 p.m.
Instructor: Loren Acton, Ph.D., astrophysicist, astronaut, space shuttle Challenger, OLLI member
The James Webb Space Telescope (JWST) was launched on Christmas Day last year. Its design, construction and testing were without precedent in terms of difficulty and risk. The talk will touch on the performance challenges and how they were addressed; the extremely tricky deployment, alignment and focus of the telescope; and a look at some first images from what appears to be a remarkably successful space mission for astronomy and cosmology.
Monday, October 24

Scams, Cons, Swindles: Are You Next?

MOANA: at 10 a.m.
Instructor: Carl Caudill, Master of Criminal Justice, OLLI member
Every year more than 3.5 million Americans over age 60 lose an average of $34,200 to criminals using phone calls, text messages, emails and internet technologies to steal their personal information ... and money. Presented by a retired law enforcement officer, you will learn how these scam artists operate and what you can do to stop them. From stealing your bank account to stealing your home, don't be next!

Combating Domestic Violence

HYBRID: at 12 p.m.
Instructor: Kristen Kennedy, executive director, Domestic Violence Resource Center
October is Domestic Violence Awareness Month. Join us as we explore the topic of domestic violence as it relates to our growing community. Understand what’s being done to address the increasing demand for domestic violence services as well as best practices in safety planning and the success the DVRC has found using trauma-informed care. Learn about the various organizations in our community that support victims of partner violence and what you can do to help.

Wednesday, October 26

Sex and Stigma: Stories of Everyday Life in Nevada’s Legal Brothels

HYBRID: at 10 a.m.
Instructor: Sarah Blithe, associate professor, Communications Studies, University of Nevada, Reno
Nevada is the only state where prostitution is not illegal. Moral judgements about sexual conduct are shrouded in titillating intrigue. At the same time, the stigma and secrecy of sex work contributes to experiences of oppression and unfair labor practices for many legal prostitutes in Nevada. Sarah Blithe will share stories of women living and working in these “hidden” organizations and will discuss labor rights, secrecy, privacy and discrimination in the current legal brothel system.

Searching for Nora Helmer

HYBRID: at 12 p.m.
Instructor: Wendy Swallow, M.A., emeritus professor of Journalism, American University
Author Wendy Swallow talks about her historical novel Searching for Nora: After the Doll’s House, and how she took inspiration from playwright Henrik Ibsen, the history of the Norwegian migration to America and the iconic figure Nora Helmer — one of the first literary characters to spotlight women’s rights. You don't need to read the novel to enjoy this talk; copies with be available for purchase and signing. For information, go to searchingfornora.com

More Forgotten Films

MOANA: at 2 p.m. to 4:30 p.m.
Instructor: Larry Coffman, M.A., OLLI member
(Mini-series: 5 sessions on Oct. 26, Nov. 2, 9, 16 and 30)
Forgotten films are those that are well-deserving of a second — or even a third — viewing but seem to have been overlooked. Such films are often “indies” (from independent film studios) or were produced outside this country. Films for this series are chosen for their cultural, social or historical perspectives and will be presented with informative introductions, follow-up analyses and lively discussions. The following movies will be shown and discussed:
10/26: Poor Little Rich Girl
11/2: Trouble in Paradise
11/9: Forbidden Planet
11/16: My House in Umbria
11/30: Whatever Works

Thursday, October 27

Fremont’s Lost Cannon

HYBRID: at 10 a.m.
Instructor: Eugene Hattori, Ph.D., curator of anthropology, Nevada State Museum
John C. Fremont led an Army Exploring Expedition between the Missouri and Oregon Country in 1843-1844. He took a mountain howitzer with him without authorization from his commanding officer and then lost the cannon in the Sierra Nevada mountains. What became of the cannon and why did he bring it with him in the first place? Learn more about Fremont's weapons and the controversies surrounding them.

Marilyn Newton’s Nevada Graveyards

HYBRID: at 12 p.m.
Instructor: Marilyn Newton, Nevada journalist and photographer
Marilyn will share with us how her interest in Nevada graveyards, which goes back to her childhood, led her to build a wonderful collection of photographs and stories, all of which she eventually assembled in a fascinating book. Let us hear her tell us how it all came together.

Monday, October 31

NV Soil Health and Composting

HYBRID: at 10 a.m.
Instructor: Cody Witt, northern Nevada manager, Full Circle Soils & Compost
Learn about the natural science of composting. By replenishing the soil with natural ingredients to sustain a healthy ecosystem, plants enjoy everything they need to happily produce bountiful harvests. Discover how to enhance your garden with natural products.

Contemporary Economic Policy Issues

HYBRID: at 12 p.m.
Instructor: Jon Haveman, Ph.D. and Fellows from the National Economic Education Delegation (NEED)
(Mini-series: 3 standalone sessions on Oct. 31, Nov. 14 and Dec. 5)

Economics plays a central role in the functioning of every aspect of our society. This series of lectures will address a small set of currently important policy issues, each having economics at its core. We will explore their origins as policy matters, the underlying data and evidence available, and what policy levers exist to deal with them. The lectures will each be standalone and taught by different subject matter experts from NEED — all of whom are Ph.D.s in Economics. The topics will include: The U.S. Safety Net, Economic Inequality and Climate Change Economics. (Presenters will be on Zoom; discussion will be facilitated live at OLLI.)

TOURS AND SPECIAL EVENTS

Wednesday, October 12

PAID TOUR: Kentucky Mine Bus Tour

OFF-SITE: at 9 a.m. to 3 p.m.
Instructor: Marilyn Marshman, OLLI member
The Gold Rush lives on at the Kentucky Mine near Sierra City, California. Join OLLI for a bus tour up Highway 89 north of Truckee to Highway 49, for a private tour led by an OLLI member and volunteer at the Kentucky Mine Historic Park and Museum. This is your chance to see and hear a working gold mine, including an operating stamp mill, and the workings of a historic hard-rock mine from the late 19th century. Tuition of $60 per person includes bus fare, admission and box lunch. Each participant will also need to pay $10 IN CASH for guided mine and stamp mill tour, day of the tour.

PRE-REGISTRATION REQUIRED: On September 23-24, send an email to ollirenoprereg@gmail.com with "Kentucky Mine" in the subject line. Include your name and phone number, and that of another OLLI member if you want to attend together. Tour is limited to 24 OLLI members; if there are more registrations, the Tours Committee will hold a random drawing to determine attendance.

Thursday, October 13

Tea and Symphony

HYBRID: at 2 p.m. to 4 p.m.

Instructor: Laura Jackson, music director, Reno Philharmonic Orchestra

Laura Jackson, music director of the Reno Philharmonic Orchestra, will be with us once again to give us an exciting preview of the Phil's 2022-23 season as well as other special community events the Phil is planning for this year. As always, we expect her to bring a musical guest or two to complete the afternoon's festivities which will also include tea and cookies — and hopefully some interesting hats, dresses and special tea attire. Pre-registration is not required.

Tuesday, October 18

Making of a Book Workshop

MOANA: at 12 p.m. to 4 p.m.

Instructor: Pietro Accardi, book-binder and restorer

Join us for this hands-on workshop, hosted by the University Libraries, featuring bookbinder and marbling artist Pietro Accardi. After a short talk and exploration of samples from the University Libraries' book arts collection of hand-crafted volumes, you will learn how to create your own handmade journal using the ancient traditions of bookmaking and binding. Limited to 15 participants. Materials fee of $75 to be paid in advance.

PRE-REGISTRATION REQUIRED: To pre-register, send an email to ollirenosignup@gmail.com between October 1 and 8 with "Book" in the subject line. If more than 15 participants sign up, a lottery will be conducted.

OUTDOOR ACTIVITIES GROUPS

All activities require participants to be an OLLI member, to have signed a current liability waiver and to register in advance. We welcome all first timers but please ensure that you sign up for activities that are within your current level of fitness. Please visit ollireno.com/outdoor/ for up-to-date information.

---

Mondays

Long Distance Hikers

OUTDOOR MEETUP: Mondays, times to be announced. See ollireno.com/outdoor/ for details.

Instructors: Naomi Silvergleid and Harry Barnett, OLLI members

Long distance hikers explore our local mountains. Please visit the website to find a list of all hikes with a description of each, suggested equipment and hike sign-up pages. Meeting times and places will vary. The number of hikers may be limited, especially for hikes that require a permit. If there is a limit, it will be noted in the hike description. Hikes typically will be 8-16 miles in length and the altitude gain between 1,500-3,500 feet. Some hikes will have difficult and strenuous sections with significant elevation changes. Occasional scrambling may be required. The pace will be consistent but not punishing. Organized breaks will typically be limited to a lunch break and two short snack/view breaks. Most hikes will take from 5-8 hours.

Tuesdays

Kayakers

OUTDOOR MEETUP: Tuesdays, times to be announced. See ollireno.com/outdoor/ for details.

Instructor: Harvey Bennett and Christine Reisinger, OLLI members

Kayakers will head for flat water: Sparks Marina, Donner Lake, various Lake Tahoe areas and other nearby lakes and reservoirs, depending on water availability. Canoes are welcome. Kayakers will spend 2-4 hours on the water. Participants must provide their own kayak or canoe, paddles, personal flotation devices and other safety equipment. Please visit ollireno.com/outdoor/ for specific dates, locations and other important information.

Wednesdays

Moderate Cyclers

OUTDOOR MEETUP: Wednesdays, times to be announced. See ollireno.com/outdoor/ for details.

Instructor: Gary Souza, OLLI member

This class is for bike riders who are interested in longer, more challenging distances and rides around the Truckee Meadows and Lake Tahoe areas. Rides will be about 20-30 miles, mostly on paved roads. Starting times will be early to avoid the afternoon heat. Please visit the Cycling section of the OLLI Outdoor Website ollireno.com/outdoor/ for required and suggested equipment and necessary preparation. At a minimum you are required to wear a helmet and will not be allowed to participate without one.
Walkers
OUTDOOR MEETUP: Wednesdays, times to be announced. See ollireno.com/outdoor/ for details.
Instructors: Jim Bonar, Joel Brown, Warren Ronzheimer and Ronald Lewis, OLLI members
Walkers will traverse paved paths and groomed natural surface trails in the Reno-Sparks area. Walks are usually easy, 2-3 miles and may have some elevation change. Walks will take less than 2 hours and will accommodate slower walkers. Meeting times and places will vary.

Light Cyclers
OUTDOOR MEETUP: Wednesdays, times to be announced. See ollireno.com/outdoor/ for details.
Instructor: Jim Romaggi, OLLI member
Enjoy riding along established bike paths in the early morning hours when the temperature is still cool. Rides may be in Reno, Sparks, Washoe Valley or the Lake Tahoe Basin. Rides are usually 10-18 miles in length and typically take 2-3 hours, with minimal street riding. For complete, up to date information on the locations, times, equipment and preparation necessary to participate, please visit the cycling section at ollireno.com/outdoor/. At a minimum, you are required to wear a helmet, and will not be allowed to participate without one.

Thursdays
Thursday Hikers
OUTDOOR MEETUP: Thursdays, times to be announced. See ollireno.com/outdoor/ for details.
Instructors: Delia Greenhalgh, Gary Souza and Mary Walkiewicz, OLLI members
Hikers explore the Reno, Sparks, Lake Tahoe and Sierra area by trails, paths and roads. Most hikes are 4-12 miles in total length and moderately difficult with elevation changes. Hikes will take 2-6 hours, depending on distance and difficulty. Meeting times and places will vary. Be sure to check the website before setting out to join the hike.

INTEREST GROUPS
Mondays
Drop-in Watercolors
MOANA: October 24 at 10 a.m.
Instructors: Barbara Laber and Robert Newbury, OLLI members
Barbara and Robert will join avid watercolorists twice a month to paint. They will provide painting tips and plenty of positive reinforcement. Students should bring all of the supplies they plan to use.

French 2 — Conversation
ONLINE: October 3, 17, 24 and 31 at 12 p.m.
Instructor: Cora Robey, Ph.D., OLLI member
For students with some previous knowledge of French who would like to review and build on that knowledge. We will practice dialogues written to help travelers and those who love France and its cultural traditions. Students will also converse in French about their experiences and interests. Contact Cora at snoopycorinne44@gmail.com for more information.

Mystery Books Discussion Group:
IQ by Joe Ide
HYBRID: October 17 at 12 p.m.
Instructor: Kenn Rohrs, OLLI member
Join fellow mystery buffs to discuss mysteries of all types — from cozies to hard-boiled crime fiction. Everyone who is interested is welcome to join the discussion. See http://ollirenomysterybg.blogspot.com for more information.
Nov. 14: Postmortem by Patricia Cornwell
Dec. 12: UNSUB by Meg Gardiner

OLLI Chorus
MOANA: October 3, 17, 24 and 31 at 2 p.m.
Instructor: Jim Heller, M.A., OLLI member
Weekly OLLI chorus rehearsals provide an opportunity to enhance your singing ability, including four-part harmony. Members perform at OLLI functions and community events in the Reno-Sparks area. Participants are asked to bring drinking water and a black, three-ring binder for each session. Music packets will be distributed at the first rehearsal.

Recorder 1 — Beginners
MOANA: October 3, 17, 24 and 31 at 2 p.m.
Instructor: Sandy Young, American Recorder Society, OLLI member
Feel the joy in playing music: learn the basics of playing the recorder. Participants need to have a soprano or alto recorder and a music stand. Participants must also be able to read treble clef notes. Class text The Recorder Guide by Johanna E. Kulbach and Arthur Nitka, is available for purchase online. Class is limited to 8 members. Please contact Sandy Young at sandypiano7@gmail.com for pre-registration and more information. Recorder 2 begins on November 14, 2022.

Warm Hats for Cool Heads
ONLINE: October 24 at 2 p.m.
Instructor: Leslie Davis, OLLI member
Join us to knit and/or crochet hats and scarves for Reno’s homeless and needy. If you don’t know how to knit or crochet, someone will be happy to teach you. We’ll share patterns, techniques and inspiration while satisfying our need to create and our desire to support the community. You’ll experience the glow of gratification by providing a thing of beauty and comfort to a fellow human in need. Please provide your own yarn and needles/hooks.
Tuesdays

Lifescapes Group A
HYBRID: October 4 and 18 at 9:30 a.m. (Meets 1st and 3rd Tuesdays)
Instructor: Phyllis Clark, chair, OLLI Advisory Council

Lifescapes Group B
HYBRID: October 11 and 25 at 9:30 a.m. (Meets 2nd and 4th Tuesdays)
Instructors: Sharon Honig-Bear and Karin Martin, OLLI members

Lifescapes classes focus on evoking memories and facilitating writing about one’s life experiences. At each session, a piece of literature is read and discussed as a springboard for writing. Students also are given topics for writing short pieces on their own that they may share with the class. All class members are encouraged to contribute stories to a themed anthology that will be published at the end of the year. Each class is limited to 20 students for in-person and online combined. Seats are available for interested members. Please email the instructor for more information and to join the class.

(Group A: email phylclarkpcsa@yahoo.com
Group B: email sharonbear@sbcglobal.net)

Flicks with Friends
OFF-SITE: October 4, 11, 18 and 25 (times vary)
Instructor: Jim Bernardi, OLLI member

Jim Bernardi shares his weekly movie recommendation for the first (budget) matinee on Tuesdays at a local theater. Check out http://jimsflicks.blogspot.com to see Jim’s movie pick for the coming Tuesday. Purchase your own ticket online or when you arrive at the theater. Make a plan to meet friends, or just show up and see who’s there!

Spanish 3 — Advanced Conversation
MOANA: October 4, 11, 18 and 25 at 10 a.m.
Instructor: Sandra Bailey, OLLI member

Intermediate level students with some prior knowledge of Spanish will engage in interactive practice in speaking, listening and writing with limited translation. Students will practice verb tenses, grammatical structures and vocabulary. In addition, Sandra will teach students about travel, food, shopping and holidays such as the Day of the Dead, current events, well known persons, art, folk art and points of interest in the Spanish-speaking world.

Tech Help: for Computers and Personal Devices
MOANA: October 11 and 25 at 12 p.m.
Instructor: Karen Hanks, OLLI member

This is a drop-in class for anything electronic: computers

(Apple or Microsoft), software (Word, Excel, Zoom, E-Mail, etc.), cell phones (Apple or Android), etc. Remote tech help is also available between meetings by sending questions to tech@ollireno.com.

Ukulele 2 — Intermediate Group
HYBRID: October 4, 11, 18 and 25 at 12 p.m.
Instructor: William Papa, ukulele instructor
Intermediate ukulele is for those familiar with the instrument and who feel comfortable reading music. If you’ve already taken the beginning ukulele class, this intermediate class will continue your ukulele adventure.

Ukulele Beginners Group
HYBRID: October 4, 11, 18 and 25 at 12 p.m.
Instructor: William Papa, ukulele instructor

Ever wanted to play the ukulele? Learn the correct way to hold the instrument and two chords for playing multiple songs. You can bring your own instrument, or borrow one of 10 ukuleles available for people who want to try one. Call William Papa at (775) 240-4930 if you need to reserve one of the 10 ukuleles. These ukuleles are for classroom use only.

Colloquy — From Soup to Nuts
HYBRID: October 4, 11, 18 and 25 at 2 p.m.
Instructors: Fred and Judith Frampton, OLLI members

This ongoing Interest Group discusses questions submitted by participants. Topics include anything galactic, international, national, state and local. Because any subject “from soup to nuts” (i.e., from A-Z) is possible, this is a fun way to expand your understanding of the world around us. Come experience the camaraderie of fellow OLLI members, each bringing their own, unique perspective! For more information, email the Framptons at fpframpton@gmail.com.

Wednesdays

French 1 for Beginners
MOANA: October 5, 12, 19 and 26 at 10 a.m.
Instructor: LeeAnn Wade, M.Ed., OLLI member

French 1 is a structured beginning French class. Vocabulary and grammar concepts are sequentially introduced to help students build a solid foundation while they are learning their new language. For the 2022-2023 academic year, this course will use the workbook Easy French Step-by-Step, 1st Edition by Myrna Bell Rochester (ISBN-13: 978-0071453875 or ISBN-10: 0071453873). Participants should purchase this text on their own. All levels of beginning abilities are invited to join this class. Short stories, conversations, songs, videos, and games will have you speaking French in no time!

Spanish 2 — Enrichment

MOANA: October 6, 13, 20 and 27 at 12 p.m.
Instructor: Judy Aukeman
This class is designed for advanced beginners to low intermediates. The goal is to improve listening comprehension, reading comprehension and speaking ability using reading passages, conversation practice (with a partner or in small groups), songs, podcasts and YouTube videos (with transcripts I provide) and other free online resources. For more details email judyaukeman@yahoo.com with “OLLI Spanish Class” in the subject line.

Big Questions

MOANA: October 6 and 20 at 2 p.m.
Instructors: Ron Foster, Nita Jameson and Tom Wolf, OLLI members
Big Questions is a challenging and engaging book discussion group for individuals seeking new insights into the big questions of our lives. Past areas of inquiry have been science, religion, philosophy, history, politics and economics. Group members select, read, and then discuss a book for several sessions. The class is built on the respectful exchange of ideas and perspectives as we read and enjoy thoughtful discussions about the big questions. For more information, email olli.big.questions@gmail.com.
